

Economic Growth Region 5

Statistical Data Report for September 2014, Released October 2014

Regional and State Unemployment (seasonally adjusted)

Regional and state unemployment rates were generally little changed in September. Thirty-one states had unemployment rate decreases from August, eight states had increases, and 11 states and the District of Columbia had no change, the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics reported. Forty-two states and the District of Columbia had unemployment rate decreases from a year earlier, five states had increases, and three states had no change. The national jobless rate declined to 5.9 percent from August and was 1.3 percentage points lower than in September 2013.

In September, the West continued to have the highest regional unemployment rate, 6.5 percent, while the Midwest had the lowest rate, 5.7 percent. The Northeast had the only statistically significant over-the-month unemployment rate change (-0.1 percentage point). Significant over-the-year rate decreases occurred in all four regions: the Midwest and West (-1.4 percentage points each), Northeast (-1.3 points), and South (-0.7 point).

Professional and Business Services Added 81,000 Jobs in September 2014

Total nonfarm payroll employment in the U.S. rose by 248,000 in September 2014, compared with an average monthly gain of 213,000 over the prior 12 months, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Over-the-month change in nonfarm payroll employment, January 2012–September 2014

Professional and business services added 81,000 jobs in September, compared with an average gain of 56,000 per month over the prior 12 months. In September, job gains occurred in employment services (+34,000), management and technical consulting services (+12,000), and architectural and engineering services (+6,000). Employment in legal services declined by 5,000 over the month.

Employment in retail trade rose by 35,000 in September. Food and beverage stores added 20,000 jobs, largely reflecting the return of workers who had been off payrolls in August due to employment disruptions at a grocery store chain in New England.

Education and health services gained 32,000 jobs in September. Health care added 23,000 jobs, in line with the prior 12-month average gain of 20,000 jobs per month. In September, employment rose in home health care services (+7,000) and hospitals (+6,000).

Leisure and hospitality added 33,000 jobs over the month. Employment in food services and drinking places continued to trend up in September (+20,000) and is up by 290,000 over the year.

These data are from the Current Employment Statistics \(CES\) program and are seasonally adjusted. Data for the most recent two months are preliminary.
